Nuthatch in Spring

Description: This charming little nuthatch bird with flowers is the perfect design for learning the technique of needle painting embroidery. You will learn the basics of long & short stitch, how to direct your stitches to fit a curve and how to enhance your embroidery through the correct use of colour and shading. The project is designed so that you will have completed most of the bird within the class. The techniques will be clearly demonstrated using slide shows, video and individual demonstration.

Tutor: Trish Burr, Cape Town, South Africa.

Level: All Welcome but some previous experience of embroidery would be helpful.

Dates: Class One Wednesday 1st July 2015,
Class Two Thursday 2nd July 2015

Full class cost is required on registration, kit and teas fees can be paid on the day. Please note that due to the hire cost of the venue I am unable to refund the class cost should you not be able to attend. Registration will be open in the Etsy shop on Monday 26th January.

VENUE DETAILS

The classes will be hosted at the delightful St Matthews conference centre in Westminster, London, close to Westminster Abbey. Other nearby landmarks include Buckingham Palace, St James Park, Big Ben, Royal Horticultural Society and Westminster Cathedral.

Getting There.

The Centre is a few minutes away and easily accessible from three main underground stations: St James Park, Victoria and Westminster as well as London Victoria, Charing Cross & Waterloo Stations. Limited parking is available and taxis are easy to obtain outside.

Accommodation

There are several hotels in the vicinity should you wish to stay overnight.

Classroom

This large, spacious room is light and airy and we have the use of the adjacent courtyard for tea and lunch. The room is equipped with audio visual equipment and you will be shown slide shows and videos during the course of the day. Tea, coffee, refreshments and a light lunch will be provided throughout the day at an additional cost. I look forward to seeing you there!
